

Chrysalis Ball

The 2009 Collin County gala season kicks off to a new beat this year, as Lexus presents the 2009 Chrysalis Ball benefiting Boys & Girls Clubs of Collin County. This year's gala event takes place on October 24, 2009 and is themed "Rhythm of the Night ~ Inspiring the Dreams of Children... One Beat at a Time". Guests will be treated to the luxury, energy and beauty they have come to expect from the Chrysalis Ball, with an added surprise that is sure to impress and inspire even the most discriminating guests. "Our gala is known for its elegance, high energy and meaningful message" says Tanya Greene, Chief Executive Officer of Boys & Girls Clubs of Collin County, "This year, guests will absolutely marvel at the program we have planned. We have stepped out of the traditional gala mold, and are bringing our guests something that will take their breath away!"

Lexus has returned as the 2009 Chrysalis Ball's Title Sponsor for the third consecutive year. "We are so honored to welcome back the metroplex Lexus dealerships," says David Cherry, Boys & Girls Clubs of Collin County's Chairman of the Board of Directors, "Lexus' continued support of this event and our organization demonstrates their sincere commitment to the communities in which they do business." Luxurious Lexus vehicles will be on display at the ball. As guests arrive at the event, they will be greeted by Lexus Valet Service and will then experience one of the most distinguishing elements of the evening...the Chrysalis Ball red carpet. Dozens of Boys & Girls Club members will line the red carpet, gleefully playing the role of the evening's paparazzi. Guests will stroll the red carpet amidst the pops of camera flashes, autograph requests and grateful children shouting "you look beautiful!" The red carpet experience creates an undeniable energy that sets the tone for the entire evening.

Christina Mennen Andrea and Rudolph Andrea on the red carpet

The gala's theme "inspiring the dreams of children, one beat at a time" will be woven throughout the event, and highlighted with an entertainment program that simply must be experienced. "No words can describe the inspiration, entertainment and meaning behind this year's theme and featured performance," says Chrysalis Ball Co-Chairperson